

Watermelon, Feta and Mint

We know what you are thinking.. But this unique combination of ingredients will baffle and amaze your pallet with how well the flavors complement one another and send your taste buds on a roller coaster of flavor. These can be served either scattered and dressed on a serving dish, arranged in skewers or as a refreshing salad with or without the addition of a small amount of arugula.

1 watermelon, cut into 1 in. cubes or
1 ½ finely chopped Mint sprigs
1 cup feta cheese (Crumbled or cubed)
Salt and pepper to taste

Directions:

1. Arrange watermelon in a bowl or on a tray (depending on how you will be serving) sprinkle with mint and feta to your liking and season to taste.
2. You are done. Enjoy

If using in a salad with arugula toss with a little olive oil and lemon juice.
